The Wikipedia:Top 25 Report was created in January 2013. This page is part of an archive project to preserve data from previous popular page reports.

← October 2004 – May 2008 → (If you are aware of sources for most viewed pages from November 2004 - 2012, please share with us!)

The most viewed articles for February 2008, derived from historical data.

In December 2007, the website stats.grok.se (<http://stats.grok.se/>) began offering comprehensive statistics where the viewcounts of all articles for each day could be reviewed. The site also contained a list of the most viewed articles for the month (though this appears to only have been done for some months). The February 2008 list is preserved at archive.org: [1] (<https://web.archive.org/web/20080404093252/http://stats.grok.se/en/top>). After removing non-article pages, the below list of the Top 75 most viewed articles for February 2008 was created in December 2016.
